Any natural person, firm, association, partnership, corporation, body politic and state or federal government or agency thereof, may become a member of Crawford Electric Cooperative, Inc., hereinafter referred to as "Cooperative," and be referred to as such and receive electric energy and service from it by:

(a) Filing with the Cooperative a written application for membership therein and for energy therefrom.

(b) Agreeing to purchase and pay for all electric energy to be purchased for use on the premises on the terms and conditions determined by the Board of Directors of the Cooperative and as herein provided.

(c) Agreeing to comply with and be bound by the articles of incorporation, the bylaws of the Cooperative, and by all policies, rules, regulations and requirements adopted by its Board of Directors that are then in effect or that may be in effect.

(d) Payment of a membership fee in the amount determined by the Board of Directors, making a deposit to secure payment of future electric service bills, if required, making a contribution in aid of construction, if required, and payment of charges for additional service connections.

(e) Granting to the Cooperative a right of way easement on the terms and conditions to be proposed by the Cooperative, to construct the necessary lines and appurtenances to give the applicant electric service, and to enable the Cooperative in the future to extend its facilities on the property of applicant to serve others beyond property of applicant.

Provided that no such natural person, firm, association, partnership, corporation, body politic, state or federal government or agency thereof may become a member unless and until he, she or it has been accepted for membership by the Board of Directors or by the membership and provided that no member shall hold more than one membership in the Cooperative, and no membership in the Cooperative shall be transferable except as provided in these bylaws.

Section 2. Proof of Membership

The membership list maintained by the Cooperative shall be conclusive as to membership status.

Section 3. Joint Membership

A married couple may apply for a joint membership and subject to their compliance with the requirements set forth in Section 1 of the Article may be accepted for such membership. The term “member” as used in these bylaws shall be deemed to include a married couple holding a joint membership and any provisions relating to rights and liabilities of membership shall apply equally with respect to the holders of a joint membership. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the effect of the hereinafter specified actions by or in respect of the holders of a joint membership shall be as follows:

- (a) The presence at a meeting of either or both shall be regarded as the presence of one member and shall have the effect of constituting a joint waiver of notice of the meeting;
- (b) The vote of either separately or both jointly shall constitute one joint vote;
- (c) A waiver of notice signed by either or both shall constitute a joint waiver;
- (d) Notice to either shall constitute notice to both;
- (e) Expulsion of either shall terminate the joint membership;
- (f) Withdrawal of either shall terminate the joint membership;
- (g) Either but not both may be elected or appointed as an officer or director, provided that both meet the qualifications for such office.

Section 4. Conversion of Membership

(a) A membership may be converted to a joint membership upon the written request of the holder thereof and the agreement by such holder and his or her spouse to comply with the articles of incorporation, bylaws and rules and regulations adopted by the Board of Directors.

(b) Upon death of either spouse who is a party to the joint membership, such membership shall be held solely by the survivor; provided, however, that the estate of the deceased shall not be released from any debts due to the Cooperative.

Section 5. Corporation or Association Members

A corporation or association who is a member of the Cooperative may be represented at a meeting of members of the Cooperative by its president or other chief executive officer, or by anyone else who is duly authorized and has written authority to do so.

Section 6. Membership and Service Connection Fees

The amount of the membership fee shall be determined by the Board of Directors. In addition to the membership fee the Cooperative shall have the right to require, in its discretion, that the members or any of the members shall deposit with the Cooperative an additional amount for each service connection as a guarantee of payment of service charges. The payment of the membership fee and security deposit, if required, shall entitle the member to one service connection.

Section 7. Purchase of Electric Energy

Each member shall, as soon as electric energy shall be available, purchase from the Cooperative all electric energy purchased for use on the premises specified in his/her application for membership, and shall pay therefor at rates which shall from time to time be fixed by the Board of Directors, provided, however, that the Board of Directors may limit the amount of electric energy which the Cooperative shall be required to furnish to any one member at a specified location. Each member shall pay to the Cooperative such minimum amount per month regardless of the amount of electric consumed, as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors from time to time. Each member shall also pay all amounts owed by him/her to the Cooperative as and when the same shall become due and payable.

Section 8. Termination of Membership

(a) Any member may withdraw from membership upon compliance with such uniform terms and conditions as the Board of Directors may prescribe. The Board of Directors of the Cooperative may by affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of all the directors expel any member who fails to comply with any of the provisions of the articles of incorporation, bylaws or rules or regulations adopted by the Board of Directors, but only if such member shall have been given written notice by the Secretary of the Cooperative that such failure makes him/her liable to expulsion and such failure shall have continued for at least ten days after such notice was given. Any expelled member may be reinstated by vote of the Board of Directors or by vote of the members at any annual or special meeting. The membership of a member who for a period of six (6) months after service is available to him/her has not purchased electric energy from the Cooperative shall be canceled by resolution of the Board of Directors.

(b) Upon the withdrawal, death, cessation of existence or expulsion of a member the membership of such member shall terminate. Termination of membership in any manner shall not release a member or his/her estate from any debts due the Cooperative.

(c) In any case of withdrawal or termination of membership in any manner, the Cooperative will repay to the member the amount of the membership fee and amount of the security deposits for the payment of bills paid by him, provided, however, that the Cooperative shall deduct from the amount of the membership fee and any deposit the amount of any debts or obligations owing from the member to the Cooperative.

ARTICLE II

RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Property Interest of Members

Upon dissolution, after (a) all debts and liabilities of the Cooperative shall have been paid, and (b) all capital furnished through patronage shall have been retired as provided in these bylaws, the remaining property and assets of the Cooperative shall be distributed among the members and former members in the proportion which the aggregate patronage of each bears to the total patronage of all members during the seven years next preceding the date of the filing of the certificate of dissolution.

Section 2. Non-liability for Debts of the Cooperative

The private property of the members shall be exempt from execution or other liability for the debts of the Cooperative and no member shall be liable or responsible for any debts or liabilities of the Cooperative.

ARTICLE III

MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of members shall be held at such time each year, as the Board of Directors by resolution shall designate, at such place within the service area of the Cooperative as shall be designated in the notice of the meeting, for the purpose of electing directors, passing upon reports for the previous year, and transacting such other business as may come before the meeting. It shall be the responsibility of the Board of Directors to make adequate plans and preparations for the annual meeting. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work a forfeiture or dissolution of the Cooperative.

Section 2. Special Meetings

Special meetings of the members may be called by resolution of the Board of Directors, or upon a written request signed by any three directors, by the president, or by twenty-five percent or more of all the members, and it shall thereupon be the duty of the Secretary to cause notice of such meeting to be given as hereinafter provided. Special meetings of the members shall be held at the Cooperative headquarters and principal place of business within the County of Crawford, near the City of Bourbon, State of Missouri.

Section 3. Notice of Members Meetings

Written or printed notice stating the place and time of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting or an annual meeting at which business requiring special notice is to be transacted, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten days nor more than twenty-five days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the Secretary, or upon a default in duty by the Secretary, by the persons calling the meeting, to each member. If mailed such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the member at his/her address as it appears on the records of the Cooperative, with postage thereon prepaid. The failure of any member to receive notice of an annual or special meeting of the members shall not invalidate any action which may be taken by the members at any such meeting.

Section 4. Quorum

Two percent of the first two thousand members and one percent of the remaining members, present in person or participating electronically or by mail, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the members. If less than a quorum is established at any meeting a majority of those present in person may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice, provided that the Secretary shall notify any absent members of the time and place of such adjourned meeting.

Section 5. Voting

Each member shall be entitled to only one vote. Except as provided in Article IV, Section 3 and Article VIII, all questions shall be decided by a vote of the majority of the members voting thereon in person if a quorum is established. In addition to voting in person, voting may also be permitted by use of a mail ballot, absentee ballot, or electronic ballot, or any combination thereof, under procedures established by resolution of the Board of Directors and disclosed concurrently with the notice of any meeting of the members at which such voting methods shall be allowed.

Section 6. Order of Business

The order of business at the annual meeting of the members, and, so far as possible, at all other meetings of the members, shall be essentially as follows:

1. Report on the number of members present in person or participating electronically or by mail in order to determine the existence of a quorum.
2. Reading of the notice of the meeting and proof of the due publication or mailing thereof, or the waiver of notice of the meeting, as the case may be.
3. Reading of unapproved minutes of previous meetings of the members and the taking of necessary action thereon.

Section 3. Election and Tenure of Office

There shall be one (1) director elected by ballot from each district to serve until the third succeeding annual meeting of the members or until their successors shall have been elected and shall have qualified. Each member of the Cooperative shall be entitled to vote for one (1) candidate from each district. The candidate from each district receiving the highest number of votes shall be considered elected as director. Ballots for the election of directors may be submitted electronically or by mail under procedures established by the Board of Directors and announced with the notice of annual meeting.

Section 4. Qualification for Directors

Any director or director candidate must comply with this bylaw.

A. General Director Qualifications. To become or remain a director, a person must comply with or meet the following general qualifications:

1. Be an individual;
2. Have the capacity to enter legally binding contracts;
3. While a director, and during the five (5) years immediately prior to becoming a director, shall not: (a) be, nor have been, convicted of a felony (b) plead, nor have pled, guilty to a felony; and
4. Unless excused for good cause by the board or members, attend at least two-thirds (2/3) of all board meetings during any twelve (12) month period.

B. Membership Director Qualifications. To become or remain a director, an individual must comply with or meet the following membership qualifications:

1.Be a member. If a membership is held jointly by a married couple either one but not both may be elected a director, provided, however, that neither one shall be eligible to become or remain a director unless both shall meet the qualifications set forth herein; and

2.Permanently occupy and continuously and materially use the cooperative's service at his or her principal place of abode at a location within the director district from which the director is elected or appointed.

C. Conflict of Interest Director Qualifications. To become or remain a director, an individual must annually sign a conflict of interest certification/disclosure form, approved by the board, and while a director comply with or meet the following conflict of interest qualifications by not being:

1.A close relative of any existing director;

2.An existing, nor a close relative of an existing, nondirector cooperative or cooperative subsidiary officer, employee, agent or representative. Any former employee who has not been terminated for cause shall be eligible to run for the board of directors beginning one (1) year after his/her resignation or retirement. Other former employees shall be eligible after five (5) years;

3.Employed by, materially affiliated with, nor sharing a material financial interest with, any other director;

4.Engaged in any business, nor employed by, materially affiliated with, nor having a material financial interest in any individual or entity, that regularly, directly and substantially competes with the cooperative or any entity that the cooperative controls or in which the cooperative owns a majority interest ("Cooperative Subsidiary"); or that regularly sells goods or services to the cooperative or a cooperative subsidiary; or that possesses a substantial conflict of interest with the cooperative or a cooperative subsidiary; nor

5.An incumbent or candidate for an elective public office in connection with which a salary is paid, school board members and county commissioners excepted.

For the purpose of this section a "close relative" is defined as a person who by blood or marriage is either a spouse, child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, aunt, uncle, nephew or niece.

D. Director Disqualifications. Only individuals complying with or meeting the General Director Qualifications, Membership Director Qualifications, and Conflict of Interest Director Qualifications, and the requirements of Article IV Section 10 Campaign Contributions and Third-Party Payments (collectively “Director Qualifications”) may become or remain a director.

After being elected or appointed, if any director fails to comply with or meet any director qualification, then the board by a 2/3 majority vote may disqualify the director. The board shall notify the director in writing of the basis for the non-compliance and provide the director an opportunity to comment regarding the board’s proposed disqualification. If within 30 days after the board notifies the director of the proposed disqualification, the director neither complies with nor meets the director qualifications, then the individual will no longer be a director.

If at least a majority of directors authorized by these bylaws comply with and meet the director qualifications and approve a board action, then the failure of any director to comply with or meet the director qualifications does not affect the board action.

Section 5. Nominations

Any fifteen (15) or more members acting together may make nominations by petition. A qualified member shall be nominated as a candidate when the petition naming that member is timely delivered to the office of the Cooperative not more than ninety (90) days and not less than forty-five (45) days before the annual meeting of the members. No member shall sign more than one nominating petition for candidates seeking election from the same district. Following closure of the petition period no further nominations shall be received.

Petitions shall be publicly posted, as they are received, in the principal offices of the Cooperative. The Secretary shall mail with the notice of the meeting or separately, but at least ten (10) days before the date of the meeting, a statement of the number of directors to be elected and the names and addresses of the candidates.

When there is more than one vacancy to be filled in a single district, each candidate from that district shall be required to elect and declare, at the time of submission of his/her nominating petition, whether that member is a candidate for a full term or for the remainder of an unexpired term. The ballot shall be established on the basis of that declaration of intent.

Section 6. Removal of Directors by Members

Any member may bring charges against a director and, by filing with the Secretary such charges in writing together with a petition signed by at least ten percent of the members, may request the removal of such director by reason thereof. Such director shall be informed in writing of the charges at least ten days prior to the meeting of the members at which the charges are to be considered and shall have an opportunity at the meeting to be heard in person or by counsel and to present evidence in respect of the charges; and the person or persons bringing the charges against him/her shall have the same opportunity. The question of the removal of such director shall be considered and voted upon at the meeting of the members and any vacancy created by such removal may be filled by vote of the members at such meeting without compliance with the foregoing provisions with respect to nominations.

Section 7. Vacancies

Subject to the provisions of these bylaws with respect to filling of vacancies caused by the removal of directors by members, a vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors shall be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors until the next meeting of the members at which the remainder of the unexpired term shall be filled by vote of the members.

Section 8. Compensation

Directors as such shall not receive any salary for their services, but by resolution of the Board of Directors a fixed sum and expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors, or for attendance at other meetings concerning affairs of the Cooperative, providing attendance has been authorized by the Board of Directors prior to such meeting, and by resolution of the Board of Directors, premiums for the directors participation in Cooperative group insurance programs may be allowed.

Except in emergencies, no director shall receive compensation for serving the Cooperative in any other capacity, nor shall any close relative of a director receive compensation for serving the Cooperative, unless such compensation shall be specifically authorized by a vote of the members. No member of the board of directors nor their close relatives shall be eligible to be employed by the Cooperative for one (1) year following the Director's board service.

For the purpose of this section a "close relative" is defined as a person who by blood or marriage is either a spouse, child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, aunt, uncle, nephew or niece.

Section 9. Indemnification

The Cooperative shall indemnify present and former directors, officers, agents, and employees against liability to the extent their acts or omissions constituting the grounds for alleged liability were performed in their official capacity and, if actionable at all, were based upon good faith business judgment in the belief the acts or omissions were in the best interest of the Cooperative. The Cooperative may purchase insurance to cover such indemnification.

Section 10. Campaign Contributions and Third-Party Payments

All candidates who receive money, financial benefits, or campaign contributions of any kind from third parties or outside sources for their campaign must disclose to the Board of Directors the identities of all such sources, amounts received from each, and dates such contributions were made, at least forty-five (45) days prior to the Annual Meeting, and five (5) days after the election should such candidate be elected by the members to serve on the Board. No Board member shall receive any money, financial benefits, or contributions of any kind from any third party or outside source related to their service on the Board once elected.

Violation of the provisions of this section will result in disqualification from Board service whether discovered before or after the election. Removal from the Board shall be accomplished through the procedures outlined in Section 4 D of this Article IV and any vacancy created by such disqualification shall be filled by the Board of Directors pursuant to Section 7 of this Article IV.

ARTICLE V

A regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held without notice, immediately after, and at the same place as, the annual meeting of the members. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall also be held monthly at such time and place in the service area of the Cooperative, as the Board of Directors may provide by resolution. Such regular monthly meetings may be held without notice other than such resolution fixing the time and place thereof.

Section 4. Quorum

A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum, provided, that if less than such majority of the directors is present at said meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time; and provided further that the Secretary shall notify any absent directors of the time and

The officer against whom such charges have been brought shall be informed in writing of charges at least ten days prior to the board meeting at which the charges are to be considered and shall have an opportunity at the meeting to be heard in person or by counsel and to present evidence in respect of the charges against him/her. In the event the board does not remove such officer, the question of his/her removal shall be considered and voted upon at the next meeting of the members.

Section 4. President

The President shall:

(a) be the principal executive officer of the Cooperative and, unless otherwise determined by the members of the Board of Directors, shall preside at all meetings of the members and Board of Directors;

(b) sign, with the Secretary, any deeds, mortgages, deeds of trust, notes, bonds, contracts or other instruments authorized by the Board of Directors to be executed except in cases in which the signing has been delegated by the Board of Directors or by these bylaws to some other officer or agent of the Cooperative, or shall by law be required to be otherwise signed or executed; and

The Treasurer and any other officer or agent of the Cooperative charged with responsibility for the custody of any of its funds or property shall be bonded in such sum and with such surety as the Board of Directors shall determine. The Board of Directors in its discretion may also require any other officer, agent or employee of the Cooperative to give bond in such amount and with such surety as it shall determine.

To the extent that the Board does so delegate with respect to any officer, that officer as such shall be released from such duties, responsibilities and authorities.

ARTICLE VII

PATRONAGE CAPITAL

Section 1. Non-Profit Operation; Interest or Dividends on Capital Prohibited

The Cooperative shall at all times be operated on a Cooperative non-profit basis for the mutual benefit of its patrons. The Cooperative's operations shall be so conducted that all patrons, members and non-members alike, will through their patronage furnish capital for the Cooperative. No interest or dividends shall be paid or payable by the Cooperative on any capital furnished by its patrons.

Section 2. Patronage Capital in Connection with Furnishing Electric Energy

In the furnishing of electric energy the Cooperative's operation shall be so conducted that all patrons, members and non-members alike, will through their patronage furnish capital for the Cooperative. In order to induce patronage and to assure that the Cooperative will operate on a non-profit basis the Cooperative is obligated to account on a patronage basis to all its patrons, members and non-members alike for all amounts received from the furnishing of electric energy in excess of operating costs and expenses properly chargeable against the furnishing of electric energy. All such amounts in excess of operating costs and expenses at the moment of receipt by the Cooperative are received with the understanding that they are furnished by the patrons as capital. The Cooperative is obligated to pay by credits to a capital account for each patron all such amounts in excess of operating costs and expenses. The books and records of the Cooperative shall be set up and kept in such a manner that at the end of each fiscal year the amount of capital, if any, so furnished to each patron is clearly reflected and credited in an appropriate record to the capital account of each patron, and the Cooperative shall within a reasonable time after the close of the fiscal year notify each patron of the amount of capital so credited to his/her account, provided all such amounts credited to the capital account of any patron shall have the same status as though they had been paid to the patron in cash in pursuance of a legal obligation to do so and the patron had then furnished the Cooperative corresponding amounts for capital. Provided, that individual notices of such amounts furnished by each patron shall not be required if the Cooperative notifies all patrons of the aggregate amount of such excess and provides a clear explanation of how each patron may compute and determine for himself/herself the specific amount of capital to be credited to him/her.

All other amounts received by the Cooperative from its operations in excess of costs and expenses shall, insofar as permitted by law, be (a) used to offset any losses incurred during the current or any prior fiscal year and (b) to the extent not needed for that purpose, allocated to its patrons on patronage basis and any amount so allocated shall be included as a part of the capital credited to the accounts of patrons, as herein provided.

Section 3. Disposition of Capital Credits

In the event of dissolution or liquidation of the Cooperative, after all outstanding indebtedness of the Cooperative shall have been paid, outstanding capital credits shall be retired without priority on a pro rata basis before any payments are made on account of property rights of members. If, at any time prior to dissolution or liquidation, the Board of Directors shall determine that the financial condition of the Cooperative will not be impaired thereby, the capital then credited to patrons' accounts may be retired in full or in part; provided, however, no such capital shall be retired in violation of any agreement, note or deed of trust made by the Cooperative or in violation of any law.

Capital credited to the account of each patron shall be assignable only on the books of the Cooperative pursuant to written instruction from the assignor and only to successors in interest or successors in occupancy in all or a part of such patron's premises served by the Cooperative unless the Board of Directors, acting under policies of general application, shall determine otherwise.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these bylaws, the Board of Directors, at its discretion, shall have the power at any time upon the death of any natural patron, if legal representatives of his/her estate shall request in writing that the capital credited to any such patron be retired prior to the time such capital would otherwise be retired under the provisions of these bylaws, to retire capital credits to any such patron immediately upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors, acting under policies of general application, and the legal representatives of such patron's estate shall agree upon; provided, however, that the financial condition of the Cooperative will not be impaired thereby.

ARTICLE VIII

DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY

The Cooperative may not sell, mortgage, lease, lease sale, exchange or otherwise dispose of or encumber all or any substantial portion of its property unless such sale, mortgage, lease, lease sale, exchange or other disposition or encumbrance is authorized at a meeting of the members thereof by the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of all of the members of the Cooperative, and unless the notice of such proposed sale, mortgage, lease, lease sale, exchange or other disposition or encumbrance shall have been contained in the notice of the meeting. All proposals for sale, mortgage, lease, lease sale, exchange or other disposition or encumbrance of all or a substantial portion of the Cooperative's assets shall be first submitted in writing to the Board of Directors of the Cooperative. If the Board of Directors looks with favor upon any such proposal, the Board shall first cause three (3) independent appraisers, expert on such matters, to render their individual written opinions as to the value of Cooperative assets which are the subject of any such proposal. The three (3) appraisers shall be designated by a resident circuit judge for the judicial circuit in which the Cooperative's headquarters are located, and in the event any or all such judges refuse to make such designations, they shall be made by the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors after receiving such appraisals, determines the proposal should be submitted for consideration by the members, it shall first give every other rural electric cooperative corporation sited and operating in the State of Missouri an opportunity to submit competing proposals. Such opportunity shall be in the form of a written notice to such rural electric cooperative corporations, which notice shall be attached to a copy of the proposal under consideration by the Board, and a copy of the reports of the three (3) appraisers. Such rural electric cooperative corporations shall be given not more than forty-five (45) days during which to submit competing proposals. Upon the termination of the forty-fifth (45th) day, if the Board then determines that favorable consideration should be given to the initial or any subsequent proposals, it shall notify the members, expressing in detail each of any such proposals, and shall call a special meeting of the members for consideration thereof, or alternatively schedule consideration thereof at the next annual meeting of members, but in no event can this notification be made less than 30 days prior to mailing official notice of the special or annual meeting.

The foregoing provisions shall not apply to lease, mortgage, lease sale, exchange or the disposition or encumbrance to one or more rural electric cooperative corporations if the substantive effect thereof is to merge or consolidate with such other rural electric cooperative corporation or corporations.

Notwithstanding anything herein contained, the Board of Directors of the Cooperative, without any authorization by the members, shall have full power and authority to authorize the execution and delivery of a mortgage or mortgages or deed or deeds of trust upon, whether pledging or encumbering, any or all of the property, assets, rights, privileges, licenses, franchises and permits of the Cooperative, whether acquired or to be acquired, and wherever situated, as well as the revenues and income therefrom, all upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors shall determine, to secure any indebtedness of the Cooperative to the United States of America or any instrumentality or agency thereof, or to any bank or other financial institution or organization.
